REGISTRATION. -In the list for the parish of Hapton, in the hundred of Depwade, the name of Mr. Lewis Cooper is inserted for the first time, with several others, as owners of a freehold estate; notice of objection having been duly served on Mr. Cooper, at his residence in Maidstone, Kent, he replied to the notice by the subjoined letter:—

Sir—I was extremely surprized yesterday evening, at being waited upon with the enclosed notice. I have not any property in Norfolk, and never authorised any person to register my name, and therefore feel very indignant at such a liberty being taken with my name—it is a scandalous forgery! and hope you will be able to discover the person that did it.

I am, Sir, your obedient Servant,
Bower. Maidstone, LEWIS COOPER.
21st August, 1835.

To Mr. Rushmore, Catton.

The above is a specimen of which the Radical Whig party in East Norfolk have furnished a very considerable number of examples, and it is very gratifying to the Conservatives to see such an attempt to impose upon this part of the county a spurious constituency; because it may be safely inferred that they could find no great accession of valid claims to put in; claims like the one above alluded to being unfounded (the parties, as Mr. Cooper correctly says, "having no property in Norfolk") will all be struck out, and leave the new claims of the party but a meagre number.—The Conservatives have resorted to no such deceptive proceedings, and their claims will outnumber those of their opponents.

On Saturday, aged 72, the Rev. J. Tremlett, of Hapton, near Long Stratton.

REGISTRATION.—Another Dissenting Claimant.—In the same List for the parish of Hapton mentioned in our last week's paper, the name of Robert Algar, junior, Kensington, Middlesex, is inserted for the first time. Mr. Algar having been personally served with notice of objection, and taken ten days' consideration upon it (probably to enquire after his "unknown" Estate), at length replied to the notice by the subjoined letter:—

Kensington, Aug. 29th, 1835.

SIR,—The enclosed notice has evidently been sent to me by mistake, as I have not, nor ever had any pretensions to a vote for East Norfolk, and I therefore return it to you, that you may, if you and your masters think fit, make some better use of it,

Your obedient servant
