TASBURGH.

A SERVICE OF SONG, entitled "Little Dot," was given in the Primitive Methodist Chapel on Wednesday evening last. The chapel was crowded to excess, and the pieces were well and effectively rendered by the choir and friends kindly assisting on the occasion. The connecting readings were given by the Rev. James C. Knapton of Hapton. Miss Duffield presided at the harmonium, assisted by Mr. Duffield and Mr. Dye on the violin, and Mr. Barnes on the violoncello. The financial proceeds were good, and are to be devoted to improvements in the chapel.
